Last month, I completed The Fund for American Studies' summer business track program in Washington, DC. Through this program, I learned so much from weekly guest speakers, economics and foreign policy classes at George Mason University, and professional development seminars, alongside my internship at MetLife.

I am also grateful to the Louis DeJoy and Aldona Z. Wos Family Foundation for funding my experience in DC this summer through the Leadership Scholars program, where I engaged in a variety of leadership development and educational events.

I have grown so much, both personally and professionally from this program, and know that it prepared me to be a better business leader in the future. Thank you so much to Lainey Carlton for leading this program track!
